

E-Rate has helped our district tremendously in that we are able to keep up with bandwidth needs and provide internet access to all our classrooms. This access is crucial to our students who are working for online credit recovery of their high school credits.